Description for Narrative to be read in Fashion Show: _____

Construction: All garments of an outfit (except top, in Level 1) must be constructed by the 4-H'er. Bring the garment on a hanger. Garment will be judged on construction first, then contestant will dress for judging of fit, pressing, suitability, quality, accessories, poise, posture, and grooming. After contest, each contestant will model in the Fashion Show. (See Contest Handbook for description of garments by levels)

Selection: All garments of the outfit must have been purchased ready-made with selection done principally by the 4-H'er. Accessories to wear with the outfit; such as hat, shoes, tie, jewelry may be made or selected with or without adult guidance. Contestant will model the outfit and be prepared to give a set of oral reasons about the outfit to the judges. After contest, each contestant will model in the Fashion Show. (See Contest Handbook)

*NOTE: No station identification for construction or selection. No samples for construction.
